When he reached the barn, he looked in the window. He could see all types of weapons located towards the barn. The barn was located approximately 15 years from the cornfields toward the barn. The barn was located on the far side of the property.

"I'm going in," he said to his partner. "You stay here and wait for backup."

Maybe he'd even get on Hard Copy.

Papers if he was able to locate the weapons and "cover" one of those militia men.

An hour went by, and Banks was getting antsy. He really wanted to get this thing wrapped up.

The warrant and would meet Banks at the scene.

War for the warrant and for back up. Officers Beans and Francis were picking up an entered 66 Wesson Street. In the mean time, Banks went over to 66 Smith Street to however, failed to fill in the correct address. Instead of putting in 66 Smith St, he put the Warrant Dibble's, magistrate Dibble.

Based on this information, Officer Banks submitted an affidavit to

In anticipation of "the big hit" bestowed the honor upon Adams to store their weapons and explosives in this barn.

Information about his new membership in the local 1776 Militia and now they had at least 3 radical terrorists, that Adams had been down at the local bar a month ago.

Reliable information several times in the past that led to arrest and conviction of cases.

Police received information from Charlie, an informant who had given

MIDTERM EXAM

SPRING 2009

PROFESSOR CAPPOLA

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
home and searched every crevice for weapons. In the freezer, they found human and saw an uzi on the kitchen table. With warrant in hand, they went inside the answered. Evans walked to the side of the mobile home and looked in the window the rear before. The police knocked on the door of the mobile home, but no one located at 66 Wesson Street. Crawford was out on bail for a robbery he committed

Undercover to Evans and Franks, Crawford lived in the mobile home baby.

The do-not-shop, "Evans said to Franks in disgust. "Come on, this'll be our attired of course. Banks and his partner were not there. "They're probably up at Meanwhile, Franks and Evans went to 66 Wesson Street. When they placed under arrest.

pistol with the serial number erased and for which Sam had no license. He was weapons. Upon searching one of the patrons' cars, Banks found a Walther PPK partner then went out to the mobile home and executed a search warrant for

He got Adams in the back seat and they headed for the station. Banks and his within you?" Adams asked. Banks radiated to his partner to bring the car around.
pursued him and arrested him in the kitchen. Banks cutted him and searched his who turned out to be Adams, said Banks, he ran back into his house. Banks When he turned around, he saw a man coming out of the house. When the man just as he was about to go inside the barn, he heard a noise behind him.

could see wooden crates marked "explosives."
of guns and ammunition lining the walls. Banks opened the barn door and inside he Discuss all relevant issues.

Adams, Sam and Grysion seek to have the relevant evidence suppressed.

Search the truck and found a bloodied knife in the glove compartment.

The officers handcuffed Grysion and put him in the police car. Evans then shifted the officers.

and ordered Grysion to "freeze" as the attempted to get back into his truck at the body parts. Just then, a pick up truck pulled up. The officers went back outside