STUDENTS PRESENTLY ON ACADEMIC PROBATION MAY NOT ATTEND SUMMER SCHOOL CLASSES.

In order to participate in the Clinic, you must have successfully completed Evidence.

If you have completed only one semester, you may only take UCC, Part 1, Drafting Contracts, Introduction to the Internet (which continues into the second session), and Restitution in the first session, and Drafting Contracts and UCC, Part 2 in the second session.

A minimum of ten (10) people must register for a class in order for it to be offered.

If you are taking only one UCC course this summer, you will need to take the other UCC course next summer to complete your graduation requirements.

A Faculty Advisor must approve your registration if you are taking more than one course per session. You can receive permission if you are not working full time during the summer.

You may choose to pay summer school tuition in installments. If you are attending during the first session, the first half of your tuition will be due at the time of registration (May 9) and the second half of your tuition will be due on June 15.

If you will be attending the second session, the first installment will be due at the time of registration for the second session (June 11) and the second half will be due on July 15.

The usual penalties and interest charges will apply to late payments. Also, there will be a late registration fee of $50 for those who register after May 9 for the first session, and after June 11 for the second session. If you do not register prior to the start of the summer session you wish to attend, you will not be permitted to enroll for that session. Because we greatly prefer not having to assess late charges and fees, we hope everyone will register and pay installments on time.

You will receive a refund of 80% of your tuition if you withdraw from a class before the start of the summer school session. No refunds will be given, however, to a student who registers for but withdraws from a course during a summer session after that session has begun (i.e., no refunds will be given if a student withdraws after 8:30 A.M., Monday, June 2, 2008 or 8:30 a.m, Monday, July 7, 2008). Courses may be dropped without academic penalty, however, during the first week of a summer semester.
