Course Description: This course focuses on honing and improving students’ analytical and writing skills, with a special emphasis on the analytical and writing skills used for successful completion of the essay portion of the bar examination. Students will explore issue spotting techniques and methods of analysis; learn helpful tips for writing essay exams; receive personalized feedback on essays; and review the substantive law necessary to write the essay portion of the uniform bar exam, which is now administered in Massachusetts (beginning July 2018).

Course Overview: This is an intensive writing class, and you should expect to complete various in-class assignments, in addition to other exercises and scheduled readings. Students should have completed all seven substantive courses tested by the Multi-State Bar Exam before taking this course: Torts, Contracts, Property, Civil Procedure, Evidence, Constitutional Law, Criminal Law/Criminal Procedure.

You will complete 12 graded in-class assignments during the semester, on which you will receive personal feedback. There will be 3 graded take-home assignments. You will write a mid-term exam, which will focus on issue spotting and outlining an actual six-question bar exam. There will also be a final essay exam on which you'll answer 3 MEE questions and 1 MPT problem in three hours.

Course Grading: Each assignment will be graded on a seven-point scale, consistent with the grading employed by the Massachusetts Board of Bar Examiners.

Your final letter grade will be based on the following assignments and allocation of points:

11 Multi-State Essay Examinations, worth 7 points each (77 points total)
1 Multi-State Performance Test, worth 7 points (7 points total)
3 Take-Home Assignments, worth 7 points each (21 points total)
Midterm (18 points total)
Final exam (77 points total)

MSL POLICY:

ALL students are required to take and satisfactorily complete Bar Essay Writing prior to enrolling in the Comparison course. Satisfactory completion of Bar Essay Writing requires that the student receive no less than a "C" in the course. If a student does not receive a "C" or better, they must retake the course.

Students may take Bar Essay Writing at any time after completion of the seven substantive bar tested subjects: Civil Procedure, Criminal Law & Procedure, Contracts, Evidence, Torts, Property, and Constitutional Law.

There will be ONE designated day for make-up work on which you MUST make up any work you missed during the course in order to pass.

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory for each and every class. Students may make up one in-class essay during the semester. Students must receive special permission for any additional make-up assignments.

Students who accumulate more than three (3) unexcused absences will have their grade reduced by one-third for each unexcused absence thereafter.
