Housing Guide

Mission

We want to make your transition to law school as smooth as possible. Whether you are relocating from out of town or from overseas, setting up a new home is never easy. Many important factors are involved in deciding where to live. Below, we have provided some information to help you find housing that fits your needs as a student at MSLAW. We hope that the information and resources provided will serve as an effective starting point in your search for affordable and convenient housing.

Online Resources

Apartments.com - Apartments.com helps you find your perfect fit through personalized searches, walk-through videos, live chat, mobile apps, tips for making your apartment a home and more.

Trulia.com/rent – Trulia is an online residential real estate site for home buyers, sellers, renters and real estate professionals in the United States.

Rentalhomesplus.com - RentalHomesPlus.com's free and easy rental home search connects you to thousands of condos, houses, townhomes and duplexes across the United States.

Craigslist – Craigslist is a centralized network of online communities, featuring free online classified advertisements with sections devoted to jobs, housing, and a variety of other services.

Roommate.com - Roommate.com is a roommate finder and roommate search service which covers thousands of cities nationwide. Currently, Roommate.com is the Web's most popular roommate matching service.

MBTA – (Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority) is Boston's guide to public transportation options and is a great help in planning your commute to and from MSLAW.
