

Please, Can We Keep the Donkey?

A Collection of Animal Rescue Stories by the Massachusetts School of Law Community

Edited by
Diane Sullivan & Holly Vietzke

Please, Can We Keep The Donkey? features dozens of personal accounts of successful animal adoptions and rescues. These entertaining stories describe rewarding relations with animals ranging from dogs and cats to birds, a snake, and, of course, a donkey.

Meet a rabbit who is an architect, a dog too ugly to pet, an orphaned cat who bonds with an orphaned girl, and unruly dog who brings aid to senior citizens, and many other animals whose lives have changed the people who took them in.

These delightful and heartwarming stories of individuals who find each other and bring joy to one another's lives pose the question that one contributor asks: "Who rescued whom?"

Foreword By

Betty White

Please, Can We Keep the Donkey? is a lovely collection of heartwarming occurrences to which all animal lovers can relate. Each story seems to trigger a personal memory of some animal that crossed your path—perhaps briefly—that you were able to help and that left a lasting impression. How lucky we are that animals continue to serve as loving ambassadors in these troubled times. Let us never forget to appreciate them and make it a point to help whenever or wherever we possible can. You will enjoy this book.
