Professor's Webpage: <http://mslaw.edu/mcoyne/>

Course Requirements & Class Participation:

The audio and materials for the Remedies course are available on MSL's website and at <http://www.mslaw.edu/remedies>. For students taking this class asynchronously, please be sure that you respond by e-mail to me each week for the questions posted for each section's assignment and take the quiz at Socrative labeled ProfessorCoyne.

You must respond to these questions promptly as your grade is based upon your answers to those questions, your weekly quiz scores from Socrative, the final examination, answers to the 103 PowerPoint questions, and your civil complaint for injunctive relief due as shown in Section 7.

The Socrative quizzes are only open for one week. When the next quiz is posted, previous quizzes are unavailable to take and you will receive a zero for all quizzes you did not take timely.

Please immediately email me and acknowledge your participation in this class.

Please note you are required to watch the PowerPoint presentation, complete the 103 questions prior to Section 3, and submit the completed complaint by the end of Section 7.

Conclusion

May 2, 2024 Discuss Examination Issues

Consider the requirements of Rule 11 while you read these cases.

First questions to be answered by email.

- Is it good lawyering to not attempt to give any notice on a TRO?
- Under what circumstances is it appropriate to use an injunction to force a speedier resolution of a case?
- Are there circumstances in which you would inform your client to intentionally violate a court order?
- How does a lawyer balance the need to make money on hourly fees with the client's right to a speedy resolution of the matter?

You are also required to email me your list of what the three fundamental things someone should know about the area of the law you intend to enter or about the field in which you presently work. How will you ensure that as a lawyer you will always represent clients at a very high skill level?
