Professor's Webpage: <http://msslaw.edu/mcoyne/>

Course Requirements & Class Participation:

The class and materials for the Remedies course are available on MSL's website at <http://www.msslaw.edu/remedies>. Classes are under weekly class content-sections. Please be sure that you take the section quiz and respond by e-mail to me for the questions posted for the section's assignment.

There are quizzes for most sections that are only open and available for 6 days beginning on Mondays and on the following Monday the next 4 sections are posted and available for 6 days. You will find those quizzes at Socrative and the rooms are called RemediesSummer, RemediesSummerA, RemediesSummerB, and RemediesSummerC. Once you enter a room, sign in using your name and take the quiz. Make sure you go to each room to take each section's quiz. You must respond to the questions quickly as your grade is based upon the quizzes, responses to questions, the final examination, answers to the 103 PowerPoint questions, and your civil complaint for injunctive relief due as shown in Section 7. You should be doing 4 sections each week with the last week being a short week as our final examination is on that Wednesday night, 6.19.24.

Please immediately email me and acknowledge your participation in this class. Please note that the final examination is in class on Wednesday, June 19, 2024 at 6:00 p.m.

Please note you are required to watch the PowerPoint presentation and complete the 103 questions before the end of Section 2 and submit the completed complaint before the end of Section 3.

Rule 68 -- Offer of Judgment

Consider the requirements of Rule 11 while you read these cases.

First section questions to be answered by email.

- Is it good lawyering to not attempt to give any notice on a TRO?
- Under what circumstances is it appropriate to use an injunction to force a speedier resolution of a case?
- Are there circumstances in which you would you inform your client to intentionally violate a court order?
- How does a lawyer balance the need to make money on hourly fees with the client's right to a speedy resolution of the matter?
